Course Description

Master US History, Civics, and Economics: Ace Your GED Exam with Elite 1-on-1 Private Mentorship (Kru Kung / Kru Bird)

Secure your high school equivalency credential with complete confidence through our 20-Hour Private GED Social Studies Intensive course. This highly specialized, private 1-on-1 live online program on jointedu.net is custom-tailored to help students decode complex historical text formats and political analysis. Guided by our top-tier language and social specialists Kru Kung and Kru Bird, students will acquire high-yielding strategies to conquer the exam effortlessly.

Key Highlights:

Full-Course Expert Mentorship: Each course is fully conducted by a dedicated tutor from start to finish. However, parents retain the absolute flexibility to specifically request module sharing or select the instructor that best matches the students learning style.

Decoding Historical & Founding Documents: Overcome the obstacle of archaic English terminology. Our curriculum trains students to rapidly interpret crucial US founding documents, supreme court cases, and political speeches, mastering the art of distinguishing between supported claims and biased opinions.

Analyzing Political Cartoons & Economic Data: Acquire specialized skills to read between the lines of visual graphics. Learn how to evaluate political cartoons, historical maps, and behavioral economics charts, drawing accurate conclusions within the strict exam time limits.
